

Privacy Notice Addendum

Re: Collecting Medical Data during the pandemic

The Jubilee Academy is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you during and after your work relationship with us, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Successful candidates should refer to our privacy notice for staff for information about how their personal data is stored and collected.

1. The law on protecting personally identifiable information, known as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), allows The Jubilee Academy to use the personal information collected from staff/parents/carers and pupils. This includes special category data such as medical data.
2. Due to this pandemic, we may need to ask for data that you have not previously supplied. This data will be collected for, and on behalf of The Jubilee Academy to allow appropriate decisions to be made regarding assessing ability to return to school and ensure that appropriate measures are put in place to allow for this safe return.
3. The Jubilee Academy additionally may need to collect data about individuals that they reside with in order to factor in appropriate considerations for their wellbeing.
4. All data collected by The Jubilee Academy will be processed in accordance with our retention, destruction, data protection and data security policies. For further information these can be found on school's website
5. The legal bases for using your data in these circumstances will be either (a) with your consent, (b) where it is necessary to process this data for the 'vital interests' of yourself or another person, (c) for the reasons of substantial public interest, (d) where it is necessary to assess the working capacity of an employee or (e) where it is in the interests of public health.
6. 1.6 In the current pandemic, we may need to share select data with others. This can be with the NHS and emergency services, public authorities as well as other stakeholders. This will only be done where it is necessary and proportionate for us to do so.

Right to Withdraw Consent

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the School Business Manager, Sukhi Cooper in writing at via data@thejubileeacademy.onmicrosoft.com

Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

How to Raise a Concern

We hope that the School Business Manager can resolve any query you raise about our use of your information in the first instance.

We have appointed a data protection officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection and this privacy notice. If you have any questions about how we handle your personal information which cannot be resolved by the School Business Manager then you can contact the DPO on the details below: -
