

Is the school continuing to be good? Is safeguarding effective?

Yes, school remains good

Letter setting out that school remains good

Returns to cycle of inspection (up to five years but usually four)

Yes, the school remains good and there is sufficient evidence of improved performance to suggest that the school may be judged outstanding if it received a section 5 inspection now

Letter setting out strengths and priorities for improvement

Section 5 inspection within two years

Inspectors are not satisfied that the school would retain its current grade if it received a section 5 inspection at this pointin time

Letter setting out strengths and priorities for improvement

Section 5 inspection within statutory timeframe, typically within two years

No, due to serious concerns regarding either safeguarding, behaviour or quality of education

Decision to convert.
Lead inspector explains that a section 5 inspection will follow

Section 5 inspection normally within 48 hours

School inspection handbook – section 8 September 2018, No. 150077 15